

WV HUMANITIES COUNCIL HISTORY ALIVE PROGRAM

Hosted by: The Pleasants County Historical Society at the Marina

Saturday, April 12, 2025

The Early Years of Mark Twain
portrayed by Doug Riley.

7:00 p.m.

Program open to the public at no charge.

Doug Riley, is a retired history teacher from Tunnelton, WV. Since 2010, he has given over 350 presentations to schools, fairs, Civil War Round Tables, & Historical Societies.

The Early Years of Mark Twain

PCHS Fundraiser
To fund museum
operating costs

Dinner at 6:00 p.m.

$40 per person

(payable to Pleasants County Historical Society)

Baked Steak, Mashed Potatoes, Green Beans, Roll, Dessert, & Beverage
Provided by Galaxy

Dinner Reservations Required:

Tickets available at: Phillips Pharmacy, St. Marys Hardware or from PCHS members

If questions, contact Dan Boley, program coordinator at (304)588-1162

Reservation Deadline is Tuesday, April 8th.